

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Stewart bldg., 68 E. Randolph, swept by fire. $175,000 damage. Many risks taken by firemen in fighting blaze. Several hurt.

Coroner Hoffman wants brain of Roswell Smith, hanged for murder, examined by experts to determine if he was sane.

Frank Tusa, 70, 1004 S. Sangamon, beaten and robbed of $170.

William Donahoe and James Menger caught in act of robbing Theodore React, 651 W. Madison, by Sergeants Welling and Casson.

John Steinko, 931 Wells, locked self in room and turned on gas to scare wife. Nearly dead when found.

Mrs. Margaret Kean, mother of Maine victim, died on eve of anniversary of Maine disaster, Feb. 15, 1898.

Clyde Williams, 19, shot 4 times while peeking into home of Serg't John Vail, 4449 Calumet. Frank Vail, son, did shooting.

Chicago ministers condemn legislature deallock. Say that John Barkycorn controls legislature.

Rabbi Hirsch in talk before Sunday Evening club, Orchestra hall, called Lincoln "savior of nation."

Several people injured when Indiana av. car hit auto at 48th st. Hurling it into wagon.

George Ruisch, 7, 5227 S. Marshfield av., died of burns. Pulled pan of hot milk from stove.

Frank Tusa, 70, 1004 S. Sangamon, beaten and robbed of $160 and watch.

Francis Moreton, 51, veterinary surgeon, dropped dead near home, 612 E. 39th.

Frank Mann, printer, 1052 W. Harrison, dead. Gas. Police probing.

$200 worth of clothing taken from apartments of Henry Barrett Chamberlain, 378 N. Clark, yesterday.

Churches and fraternal organizations celebrated century of peace between England and U. S. yesterday.

Martha Day, East Chicago Heights, burned to death when she poked fire in stove.

John Paoulizicz, tailor, 4533 S. Marshfield av., burned by explosion of benzine.

Eleven autoists arrested by Rogers Park police for speeding and going on wrong side of street.

Joseph Wilson, St. Louis, jumped in river from Clark st. bridge. Couldn't find work.

Louis Vehon, clothier, 11129 S. Michigan av., robbed; $250.

Roy Foster, Bloomington, Ill., arrested for caressing Margaret Staudt, 530 W. 43d pl., near her home.

Amateur boxing bout between women at Sportsmen's club called off. Police threatened to arrest participants.

Auto bandit fatally shot by Policeman Hogan, Warren av. station. Companions escaped.

Sleeping ended in First Congregational church, Waukegan, yesterday. Pastor threatened to announce names of offenders from pulpit.

Frank Panknin, mechanic, arrested after wrecking auto of Mrs. Frederick Haughton, which he had been sent to repair. Finished job and took friend for ride.

Lawrence Hines, 5618 Laflin, died suddenly. Injuries received while at work on new bridge year ago blamed.

Joseph Oberfarcher, bricklayer, 72, found dead in bathroom of rooming house, 2622 Normal av. Heart disease.

Dr. J. Bailey, 5658 S. Halsted, swindled by 2 men selling advertising space in church parish newspaper.

Elsworth Kinlon, 6419 Langley av., knocked down and badly bruised by auto of Geo. Wather, 6426 Lowe av.

Charles Koettters, 7241 Lafayette av., cut and bruised when his milk wagon was wrecked by 63d st. car.

Thomas McInerney, 6 weeks, 7244 Cottage Grove av., found dead in bed by mother. Pulmotor worked over body for hour. Pneumonia.

New Thorndale av. station of Edgewater "L" opened.